

British Values

Our opinions are valued; in return, we must value the opinions of others. We make decisions together

Democracy	Making a choice or decision
	Understanding fairness in decision making
	Listening to, valuing and respecting the views of others
	Expressing my viewpoints
	Having a voice through our School Council
	Making decisions together

We all have the freedom to make our own choices. We show kindness to everyone.

We respect and learn from each other's differences.

Tolerance of those of different faiths and beliefs	Anti-bullying and prejudice
	Belonging and feeling valued
	Learning about different faiths, cultures and people who are different to me
	Listening to, and showing respect towards other viewpoints
	Learning about diversity
	Being respectful towards others

Individual Liberty	Making informed choices
	Expressing individual views respectfully
	Welcoming others and creating a positive learning environment
	Personal Development (SMSC)
	Children's rights
	Everyone is unique and special

We understand that rules and laws are there to keep everyone safe and happy. We are all responsible for upholding rules and laws.

We always treat others as we want to be treated.

Mutual Respect	Developing positive relationships with others
	Making and maintaining friendships
	Welcoming others and treating others fairly
	Treating others with kindness and respect
	Socialising and including others
	Team work and collaborating

Rule of Law	Creating a safe, happy environment to learn
	Understanding rules and why they are important
	Making positive behaviour choices
	Learning about our responsibilities
	Safeguarding and keeping safe