

Autumn term

Week	Retrieval	Main Lesson	Vocabulary
1	To know that some sentences ask a question.	To know how to write a simple sentence using the coordinating conjunction and .	sentence, conjunction, and
2	To know how to use a question mark at the end of a question.	To know how to write different sentence types using Alan Peat's 2A Sentence .	sentence type, adjective, Alan Peat
3	To know that some sentences show strong feeling or surprise.	To know how to write a simple sentence using the coordinating conjunction but .	conjunction, but
4	To know how to use an exclamation mark at the end of an exclamation.	To know how to use commas to separate items in a list .	comma, list
5	To know that sentences can be sequenced to tell events in order.	To know how to write a simple sentence using the coordinating conjunction because .	conjunction, because
6	To know that words such as first, next, then, finally can help us talk through an order before writing.	To know how to use subordinate conjunctions to create complex sentences.	subordinate conjunction, when, if, that, because
7	To know that names of places begin with a capital letter.	To know how to use sequence connectives .	first, second, then, next
8	To know that we can reread several sentences to check they stay linked in meaning.	To know how to use coordinating conjunctions to create compound sentences.	coordinating conjunction, and, but, or, so
9	To know that we can improve writing by checking capitals and sentence-ending punctuation.	To know how to identify and write simple, compound and complex sentences.	simple, compound, complex
10	To know that we can improve one word to make meaning clearer.	To know how to edit and improve sentences using conjunctions.	edit, conjunction
11	To know that we can choose punctuation to match meaning: full stop, question mark or exclamation mark.	To know how to use a range of conjunctions independently.	coordinating conjunction, subordinate conjunction
12	To revisit and apply Year 1 sentence and punctuation knowledge in a short independent piece.	To know how to apply conjunctions and sentence types in extended writing.	sentence type, conjunction

Spring term

Week	Retrieval	Main Lesson	Vocabulary
1	To know how to write a simple sentence using the coordinating conjunction and .	To know how and when to use question marks .	question mark, punctuation
2	To know how to write different sentence types using Alan Peat's 2A Sentence .	To know what a compound noun is.	compound noun
3	To know how to write a simple sentence using the coordinating conjunction but .	To know how to begin sentences with time openers .	time opener
4	To know how to use commas to separate items in a list .	To know how to write specific nouns .	specific noun
5	To know how to write a simple sentence using the coordinating conjunction because .	To know and be able to include adverbs of manner in writing.	adverb, manner
6	To know how to use subordinate conjunctions to create complex sentences.	To know how to use determiners and generalisers .	determiner, generaliser, most, some, all, many
7	To know how to use sequence connectives .	To know and be able to include comparative and superlative adjectives in writing.	comparative adjective, superlative adjective
8	To know how to use coordinating conjunctions to create compound sentences.	To know how to write expanded noun phrases .	expanded noun phrase, determiner, adjective, noun, prepositional phrase
9	To know how to identify and write simple, compound and complex sentences .	To know how to improve writing using expanded noun phrases .	expanded noun phrase, adjective, noun
10	To know how to use a range of coordinating conjunctions accurately.	To know how to use adverbs of manner to add detail to sentences.	adverb, manner
11	To know how to use subordinate conjunctions to extend sentences.	To know how to choose specific nouns, determiners and generalisers effectively.	specific noun, determiner, generaliser
12	To know how to apply sentence types and conjunctions independently in writing.	To know how to edit and improve writing using expanded noun phrases, adjectives and adverbs .	noun phrase, adjective, adverb, determiner

Summer term

Week	Retrieval	Main Lesson	Vocabulary
1	To know how and when to use question marks .	To know how to use commas in a list .	comma, list
2	To know what a compound noun is.	To know how to add the suffix -ful to form adjectives.	suffix, adjective, -ful
3	To know how to begin sentences with time openers .	To know how to use a list sentence .	list sentence
4	To know how to write specific nouns .	To know how to add the suffix -less to form adjectives.	suffix, adjective, -less
5	To know and be able to include adverbs of manner in writing.	To know how to use capital letters for proper nouns .	capital letter, proper noun
6	To know how to use determiners and generalisers .	To know how to add the suffix -ness to form nouns.	suffix, noun, -ness
7	To know and be able to include comparative and superlative adjectives in writing.	To know how and when to use exclamation marks .	exclamation mark, punctuation
8	To know how to write expanded noun phrases .	To know how to add the suffix -er to form nouns.	suffix, noun, -er
9	To know how to improve writing using expanded noun phrases .	To know how to identify and use a range of suffixes .	suffix, root word
10	To know how to use adverbs of manner to add detail to sentences.	To know how suffixes change the meaning of words.	root word, suffix
11	To know how to choose specific nouns, determiners and generalisers effectively.	To know how to use punctuation accurately in sentences.	punctuation, capital letter, comma
12	To know how to edit and improve writing using expanded noun phrases, adjectives and adverbs .	To know how to apply suffixes and punctuation in extended writing.	suffix, punctuation